

SPECIAL FEATURE

Paige Adelle grows in 2012

POULSBO – Mommy and Daddy continue to be incredibly grateful for the gift that Paige Adelle has been to the family.

Paige turned two in 2012—in her words “I’m almost two almost old.” She still says this months later, prompting concern whether she will ever turn three.

Her favorite things are dancing, coloring, reading, live theater and dressing up (to dance). She loves going to dance class and going to music class (to dance). So pretty much dancing.

Mommy and Grandma Wenger took Paige to see the Nutcracker for the first time. A tradition that will last for years to come!

She loves seeing and playing with her cousins—we didn’t get to see all of them in 2012 but hopefully that will happen in 2013!

Updates from 2012

- Dave and Heather were a part of launching newlife church in our town of Poulsbo in December. God is blessing the church and they are excited for what He is doing in North Kitsap!
- Heather started a moms group with a dear friend, and is helping with leadership duties for the kids theater at the new church launch.
- Dave received a promotion and continues to work in Digital Marketing at Masterworks. He’s blessed with a wonderful team and loves his work.
- Dave leads a photography small group and recently put on an event called Help Portrait to provide portraits for people in need—26 sessions and 64 people were blessed.
- Dave and Heather continue to facilitate a small group together.

Christmas greetings to all

POULSBO – Heather, Dave, Paige, and Baby Raley want to wish friends and family a very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year! Blessings to you and yours in 2013.

To see pictures and video from this past year, please visit www.theraleys.com.

ANOTHER RALEY TO JOIN THE FAMILY IN 2013

POULSBO – The Raley family has announced that another little peanut will be joining the clan in June 2013.

Arriving around June 18, Baby Raley will be member of the Raley family, based in Poulsbo, Washington.

Family dog, Abby Raley, would like to point out that the baby would be the *five*th family member, if dog-kind were included in the count. “I’m not really looking forward to being further at the bottom of the totem pole,” Abby told us. She added on a more positive note, “at least I don’t think couch privileges are being revoked.”

Little Paige is growing excited for the arrival of a little baby sister or brother. She only has girl cousins on Mommy’s side, so when asked the question, she stated “I will read to my baby sister, and I will play with her.”

She was asked, “what if it’s a baby brother?” Her reply? “[pause]...I don’t know.”

WDW2012 — celebrating in the Happiest Place on Earth

Raley-Wenger-Brestle family with Cinderella in her castle.

Paige spending quality time with Mickey and Minnie.

ORLANDO – The Raley-Wenger-Brestle clan converged at Walt Disney World in May to celebrate the recent retirement for both Judy and Kim.

A first time visit for both Dave and Paige, it was difficult to tell which one had more fun.

Paige’s favorite moments were meeting with characters—her favorites were the princesses and fairies, and at the top of the list was Princess Aurora (aka Sleeping Beauty). She wasn’t so sure of Mary Poppins or the Fairy Godmother.

Favorite rides were the Carousel, Dumbo, Small World, and the Tea Cups—coincidentally the same favorites for Daddy, give or take a few. :-)

It was a special time for creating memories, and you can bet they’ll be back—but Cars Land and Disneyland in California are calling first.